

THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL
NEURO-SEMANTIC CONFERENCE

July 1—3, 2011

Grand Junction Colorado USA

NEURO-SEMANTICS CONFERENCE

What?

In 2011, we (the Leadership Team of Neuro-Semantics) are launching the first International Neuro-Semantic Conference. And we are launching it in Grand Junction Colorado where Dr. Hall first conducted his original NLP Training Center—the place where he later discovered the Meta-States Model (1994) which gave rise to Neuro-Semantics as a movement, a field, and a community (1996).

The Conference will involve 3 Keynote presentations and 3 tracks of workshops. The workshops tracks will be in the following: Personal Development, Business, and Coaching. The schedule of workshops will be sent out on “Neurons” (the international egroup of Neuro-Semantics) and will also be posted on a special page on the international website: www.neurosemantics.com.

Theme?

The theme of this first International Conference is the by-line of Neuro-Semantics—Actualizing Excellence. Every keynote speech and workshop will speak to this theme—what it means and how to apply it.

Where?

Grand Junction Colorado is in Western Colorado — 250 miles west of Denver (over the entire Rocky Mountain range), 250 miles south-east of Salt Lake City, and approximately 500 miles from both Las Vegas and Phoenix. There are flights from each of these cities as well as Dallas Texas (see below). The Conference will be at the Country Inn Conference Center on Horizon Drive, one mile from the airport (Walker Field). And there is a special room rate for anyone coming in to the Conference, simply mention “Neuro-Semantics.”

Take a Holiday in Western Colorado! If you want to come early or stay after, Country Inn will give you the same “Neuro-Semantic” rate and you can visit the mountains for summer sports (white-water rafting, hiking, visiting Vale, Aspen, etc.) or out into the Desert (Moab, The Arches, etc.) or to the Black Canyon (Montray Colorado).

When?

The dates and time for the Conference is July 1—3, 2011 ... and the Conference will be conducted from 9 am to 6:30 pm each of these days. Evenings are for connecting and socializing.

Post Conference Training?

After the Training, Dr. Hall and staff will be conducting Module III of Meta-Coach Training, Coaching Mastery. This is the “Coaching Boot Camp,” a very intensive 8-day training that leads to the ACMC credentials (Associated Certified Meta-Coach). (See and ask for the Meta-Coach Brochures, www.meta-coaching.org).

Ask for the special rate for Neuro-Semantics, it is $79 for double and $75 single. The rooms are large with a full size refrigerator. The hotel is 1 mile from Walker Field Airport—the airport that serves Grand Junction. There is free shuttle service to and from the airport.

July is high tourist season; so the sooner you call and reserve a room, the more likely you can get this price. Otherwise it is $129 a night. If you want to save money by sharing a room, you can get two queen size beds.

When: July 1— 3

Investment: $295 at the door ($250 early bird price)
A special rate only for Licensed Neuro-Semantic Trainers and Meta-Coaches: $195 ($150 early bird).

Airlines

Airlines that fly into Grand Junction Colorado at Walker field are:

United airlines via Denver (United Express)
Delta airlines via Salt Lake City (United Express)
US Air airlines via Phoenix
American airlines via Dallas/ Fort Worth
Allegany airlines via Los Vegas

Grand Junction is on the Western Slope of the Rockies on Interstate 70, 30 miles from the Utah border. It is in the western desert. Google “Grand Junction Colorado” and you will find all kinds of things about the city, the area, wineries, mountains, etc.
